Social Responsibility

"Having come from a humble background, it is a special privilege to be able to give back to our communities."

“Bail Hotline’s understands the need to give back to the communities in which we operate.”

Giving back to the community is a priority here at the Bail Hotline. We enthusiastically support education, the armed forces, children, and health awareness. Here are a few important events in which we have had the pleasure of being involved:

Bail Hotline recently showed their love and support for the March of Dimes by walking 6 miles through downtown Riverside, helping to raise money in the fight to prevent birth defects and premature births.

The Armed Forces give themselves so that we may enjoy our democracy at home. Therefore, we teamed-up with San Diego Home Cooking on Mother’s Day to honor Military Moms and Wives. Our two local, family owned companies, encouraged guests to nominate Military Moms and Wives during the month of April for a complimentary Mother’s Day meal and spa day.

Bail Hotline also showed its appreciation and support for the military on Father’s Day by connecting with military families. We donated 150 international calling cards to For The Troops, a Southern California non profit, for overseas troops to be able to contact their loved ones.

Over the past three years, the Bail Hotline has donated over 10,000 backpacks for students in San Bernardino, Los Angeles, and San Diego counties. The Bail Hotline also supported the Pink Ribbon Place and its mission to spread breast cancer awareness.

Bail Hotline has sponsored local professional boxers, such as Josesito Ortiz and Ian “The Barn Owl” Loveland, and stepped up again recently to sponsor three more great fighters: Soto-Karass, Ponce De Leon, and Ringondeaux Ortiz in events televised on Showtime and HBO.
